The Grand Bethel of Missouri was founded in 1954 by Ruth Mary Leavitt and Judge Reginald Smith, who served as the first Grand Bethel Guardian and Grand Bethel Associate Guardian respectively. The Grand Bethel consists of Job's Daughters from around the state. The girls meet each year at Grand Session and elect a new Grand Bethel Junior Princess, who will in turn go up the line to become the Grand Bethel Honored Queen. This year Daniella Brand is our Grand Bethel Honored Queen and she is reminding everyone that "Love is all around, you have to look in your heart to find it." There are other Grand Bethel Officers and Representatives selected at the session as well. The Grand Bethel also has an annual meeting called Mini Session. This is a fun weekend where all the Job's Daughters of Missouri have a chance to meet old friends and make new ones. The Grand Bethel Trio, consisting of the Grand Bethel Honored Queen, Grand Bethel Senior Princess, and Grand Bethel Junior Princess, travel throughout the state bringing goodwill and friendship to all. They are also traveling in the path laid out before them by the Past Grand Bethel Honored Queens of Missouri. To all of them we owe a great deal, and we are honored that they have chosen Job's Daughters as a way of life.

Report of the Grand Bethel Honored Queen

Good morning! I hope everyone is awake now! This year has been one of the best years of my life and I wouldn't have given up the chance to experience it for anything! My mom and dad will agree with this statement that I think I went a little crazy this year, between traveling to all the Bethels, working when I could, going to school full time and being President of the Student Activities Council on campus, sometimes I was spread a little thin. So I want to apologize to Bethel 60 for not making your Official Visit and not being able to squeeze in a meeting visit, but I will be in Cape next fall so I will be able to be at a meeting! There is no way that it is possible that my year is over. It feels like it was maybe a week ago that I was installed as Grand Bethel Honored Queen. I have loved every minute of this year!

The year started off with the Imperial Shrine Parade in downtown St. Louis, it was a 3 hour parade full of old cars, yomos, horses and clowns. We even met some Masons from Mexico City. Next were the receptions for the Miss and Jr. Miss Missouri. Erica and Brianna, your receptions were awesome, I had a blast. I'm so glad that I got to serve the first part of my term with you two; you represented our state so beautifully.

A few weeks later we were off to Middleton, Wisconsin, for Supreme Session. When we got to the hotel, mom and I were surprised that we got an upgraded suite, so we settled in and then headed out for our tour of one of the lakes. Monday we went shopping and sightseeing and then saw the showcase of girls who won in the singing and dance competition. Tuesday I got up early and went to cheer on the Supreme Team. Then mom and I went shopping at Doc Morgan and later that night we went to the Mallard's ball game for HIKE. After the game got rained out we went back to the hotel and had a pizza party. Wednesday was the Royalty luncheon and practices for formal opening and then off to formal opening. Thursday was the Supreme Bethel meeting where 3 girls got picked to be Supreme Bethel Reps! After the meeting it was the All Job's Daughters luncheon where it was announced that our Supreme Team got 3rd place! Dinner that night was with the delegation from Idaho followed by the Miss International Pageant, where Erica got second runner up! Friday was the Supreme Bethel Installation and a trip out of the hotel for dessert. Saturday was the Supreme Guardian Council Installation where I escorted Mom Toni as she was installed as Supreme Guide. Sunday we crammed everything in the car and headed home.

The next weekend was our first trip to Columbia for Masonic Youth Day where we hung out with the Rainbow girls and the boys from DeMolay. The next week was our Second Annual trip to the River City Rascals game where we sang the National Anthem on the field. The following day was the very first Youth Protection Program Training. It was a long day, but I think that everyone there learned a lot about the Order and about the dos and don'ts about protecting the ladies of this order.

September was a busy month with Official Visits, the SLALOC Spirit Dance; Congrats to the new Spirit Trio – Megan, Carolyn & Stephanie. L/T HIKE with the return of Dad Craig, the Moolah Shrine Dance and Grand Lodge where I was able to speak to all of the Masons that were assembled there. I have to admit that seeing all of those Masons sitting out in the audience was very intimidating, because they are all waiting to hear what I had to say. It was an honor sitting on stage with Justin and Amanda waiting to speak and feeling as nervous as ever.

October had a few more official visits and Grand Chapter where I got to bring more greetings on behalf of Missouri Job's Daughters and was able to present the Bethel Flag during their opening flag ceremony. The Miss Missouri Pageant was a blast, congratulations to Tiffany, Amy and Katie. I know that you three will have an amazing rest of your year. To Erica, Brianna and Amanda, it was awesome to serve the first part of my term with you. Erica it was an honor to support you at Supreme, you made us all proud. Tiffany, you are going to do great at Supreme Session, and I look forward to seeing you compete.

November held the planning meeting for Mid America HIKE, more officials, a visit to the Grand Masters Reception and the DeMolay State Officers Installation. Congratulations Ryan and Mike for being installed as State and Deputy State Master Councilor. Later that month was the Thanksgiving Ball, congrats to the new trio – Kiley, Kristie & Lilly.

December brought installations and Christmas. Congrats to all of the Honored Queens and officers of that term. January welcomed more official visits and the SLALOC sleepover at the Scottish Rite, everyone had a great time.

February continued with more officials a reception for Dad Craig and myself. I had a blast and I loved the slideshow. The Jobiewood Derby was a blast. I never imagined the creativity of the girls and how awesome the cars turned out. Thanks to my Bethel for all of the hard work that you put in to make the day a success and incorporating our ideas.

March was quite busy! There were more official visits and then Mom Nancy's reception. Bethel 19, you did a great job honoring Mom Nancy. Afterwards we had the Grand Bethel Trivia Night, where we raised enough money for two scholarships! Mini Session followed shortly after that and I had so much fun! Seeing the girls doing all of the activities and everyone's costumes and dealing with all the weather – rain, wind and snow. Thanks to everyone that came and participated in all of activities, you made all of my hard work worthwhile! We also were lucky enough to have the Supreme Guardian and Supreme Bethel Honored Queen for a visit. They were impressed at how well our state works together and how it shows the true meaning of sisterhood. Thanks to all of the daughters who participated in the meeting, you made it very special.

April seemed to slow down slightly. There were a few official visits, Grand Amaranth, where we performed the bible ceremony and I addressed the members of Missouri Amaranth. The State Officers Reception in Kansas City and Bethel 4's mini golf tournament to help raise money for the scholarship fund followed.

May brought Mid America HIKE and the last official visit, helping Bethel 32 with their BBQ at the Veterans Hospital and Conclave. I had a blast at all of the events, and I was impressed with all of the activities and awards that were given out at Conclave. Congratulations to Karrin for being chosen as State Sweetheart.

Now it is June, congratulations to all of the new Honored Queens and Bethel officers – thanks for asking me to be in your installations. Erin it was a true honor to install you as HQ and I know you will serve our Bethel well. Now my term is almost over, but before I finish I have to make my thank yous. To the members of Missouri Job's Daughters – Thank you for electing me three years ago to serve you. I hope that I have served you well and that I was able to live up to your standards, because without you, I would not be here talking to you now.

To the Advisory Board – I need you to go to Wal Mart, you know what I forgot! Without you three, I would have gone completely crazy at Mini Session. You did what I didn't think to do and whatever I asked without hesitation and I thank you a million times over! To the Grand Bethel Council – There are no words to express my gratitude to you. Mom Karin, Dad Dave and Mama Donna, Thanks for your advice, your constant support and dedication to our order. Dad Dennis, there are no words to describe how comforting your bear hugs are when I was feeling down, or how confident I felt in voicing even the strangest of ideas knowing that you were a constant supporter. Your crazy antics may get you into trouble, but you are here because of the girls and I am forever grateful that you served this year with me. Mom Julie, you have been with me throughout my Job's Daughters career. You were my first Bethel Guardian when I was HQ and your dedication and hard work simply demanded the respect of the Bethel girls. That same respect was the reason behind me asking you to be my Grand Bethel Guardian this year. Thank you all for being behind me and all my endeavors. Our friendship will always be special to me.

To Caitlin and Jen: We didn't all get to travel a lot together this year, but when we were together it was fun and I learned a lot from you both this year. Caitlin, your willingness to express yourself and your dedication to the girls is impressive and will take you far in life. Jen, we have gotten close over the past two years, and I can't believe that our time in this trio together is over. You have been there to talk to when I didn't want to talk to anyone else and of course our long list of road trips has left me with too many memories to even go into detail about. I don't know what I'm going to do without you next year, who is going to do my hair for special occasions and gossip with me about everything? I know that you will both make awesome GHBQs and you know where to find me if you need something.

To Mom Nancy – I have learned so much from you this past year. We went into this year worried as to how things were going to go, with Dad Craig not being there, but we made it. Thank you for altering my dress, making straps to go on my imitation brown dress and for cleaning up my dress after I spilled chocolate on it from the chocolate fountain at Bethel 44s installation, thank you just doesn't seem to be enough. Flat Craig is still a highlight of our year; it was great to be able to think that he was with us when he couldn't be. It has truly been an honor to serve with you this year and to be able to call you "my" Grand Guardian and friend. P.S. We need to go to lunch! To Dad Craig – Hey bus driver, are we there yet? From a very emotional start to this year till now, there has never been a dull moment! Our minds seem to think the same way a lot, and once we get to talking, by the time we realize it, it's midnight and we are still standing on the parking lot at the Bethel and my parents have called five times to find out where I am. There was a long list of things I asked you to do before you left for your trip and I was and still am amazed and grateful that you were able to get them done! Thanks for my sashes and polos they are the best! Whenever I was stressed about a speech or just needed a laugh because I was bored sitting at some banquet, Peanut never failed to entertain! If it was off roading in the truck to get to Subway or playing peek-a-boo at the rest stop bathroom, there was never a dull moment! It has been an honor to serve with you, and now you have to delete all of those awful pictures you have of me!

To my Jobie Aunts - Auntie Kimmy Poo, You welcomed me to your family three years ago when I barely knew you and I have grown to know and love you like a real aunt. You're forever my Hard Rock buddy and I believe that you still owe me a lunch or two! Thanks for always being a willing listener and a friend. You're the bomb digety! Auntie Helen, I don't think the monthly sister dinners would be nearly as hilarious without you! I was so happy when I got to be the niece of the group and I got a matching purse, charm bracelet and all the scoop of my mom's crazy bathroom incidences and why we don't let her go alone anymore! Thank you both for your love and support!

To my Friends – Heather & Justin my BFFs, my "high school clan," and my "Student Activities Council Crew," even though they couldn't be here, I wanted to thank them. Heather for understanding when I couldn't always talk or go visit her at school when she wanted me to and still wanting to hangout every minute that she was home on break. Justin, second semester was when I really got to know you and it was amazing how fast we became so close. Sometimes it's creepy being able to finish each other's sentences but we always laugh at it later! I could always count on you and Chris to remind me why I was GBHQ and SAC President, even if you refused to call it Job's Daughters and insisted on calling it a cult. I honestly don't know what I'm going to do without you next year! All of my friends: Sarah, Jake, Jen, Nathan and Chris, thanks for making me smile and being understanding when I was stressed or had to leave something early for an event or to be in Kansas City the next morning, I don't think I would have made it through everything without all of you, thanks again!

To my Bethel – there are no words for all of you. You have supported me the best you can in everything that I set out to do and your seemingly endless enthusiasm is awesome. Erin, Stephanie, Kristen, Jamie, Tiffany and Madison, I love you girls more than you know! Thank you so much for supporting me in all of my endeavors! The Council – Judy, KJ, Linda, Denise and Patti, I don't think that there is an end to your willingness to help me and the Bethel with whatever we need. Thank you!

To the Flanery's – I just want to say that I love you all and you make me smile even when I don't want to and you are all there to talk no matter what! Thanks for being my KC Family! Mom & Pops Sinley – I don't even know how long I have known you guys, but you were my first KC Family, now my Arizona Family. You love me like your own daughter and spoil me just the same. I have looked up to both of you for as long as I can remember and I will never forget my official visit with you guys! I love you! I'll always be there for all of you!

To my brother, Nathaniel – You may not believe it sometimes, but I love you. You're the best little brother I could have asked for. Thanks for understanding when I couldn't play with you or couldn't be around, or took mom or dad away for a weekend – you're the best!

Before I do my last two thank yous, I want to let everyone know that has driven me around, helped me in any way, gave me a hug or just said hi to me somewhere, that I truly do appreciate you and your kindness. My year would not have been complete without all of you, and know that you have touched my heart along the way.

To Darth aka Dad – Where do I belong? My driver to everything that you could take me to and my constant photographer, sometimes I don't think that saying I love you is enough. You listen to me when I need to vent and you don't judge. You have done so much for me this year I don't think that there is any way that I can show you how much I appreciate everything that you have done for me. I love you so much, thank you!

To my Madre – It is no secret that we don't get along all of the time, but I think that it is part of a typical mother, daughter relationship. You have spent sleepless nights trying to get things done for me and your endless commitment is something to be commended. I love you so much and there are no words to express that. I think that you know that after all of our late night talks. Thanks for letting me be an adult when I need to be and treating me like your little girl when I need to be your little girl once again. I love you so much.

Thank you all again and again for all that you do and thank you to all of the girls sitting in this room, for letting me serve you as your Grand Bethel Honored Queen this year.

Jobie Love and Mine always,
Daniella Brand, PHQ #47
Grand Bethel Honored Queen 2008-2009

Grand Bethel Senior Princess Report

This year has been amazing! It has gone by so fast. I hope you all have enjoyed it as much as I have. Here are my top 10 things from the year.

10. Having my first Gall Bladder Attack leading to emergency surgery therefore preventing me from attending Mid America HIKE!
9. Being able to meet the Supreme Bethel Honored Queen Jenna and show her around STL.
8. Being worried if we were going to make it off the elevators at Miss Missouri while being runners.
7. Daniella and I making a fashion statement at Bethel 1's ov with our neon work belts that we found in Dad Craig's truck.
6. Receiving my Majority at my Bethels official visit.
5. Daniella thinking I would know the answers for the possible trivia questions for the trivia night on a late night trip home from KC. I am really bad at trivia.
4. Window licker
3. Experiencing three different types of weather while at mini session, sun, rain, and snow.
2. Having one of my best friends crown me tonight.
1. Making our own road to subway when we changed our minds last minute on where we wanted to eat during one of our many trips to KC.

Daniella you have done an amazing job this year. You have left some pretty big shoes to fill! I know you worked very hard. I am very excited to see Bethels growing; girls keep up the good work. I have had an awesome year and love working with Daniella and Caitlin. I want to thank my mother, my Bethel and anyone who has helped me in any way with this upcoming year. Without your help it wouldn't be possible. I have had so much fun this past year and can't wait for the upcoming year. I have enjoyed traveling around the state visiting all the Bethels, if I didn't make it to your Bethel this past year I am sorry and you will see me this upcoming year! Traveling to different Bethels is one of my favorite things because you get to meet so many awesome girls and get to make friendships everywhere!

Jobie Love,
Jen Hallahan Grand Bethel Senior Princess 2008-2009

Grand Bethel Junior Princess Report

Wow. This year really flew by! I had so much fun traveling around the state and getting to know you girls better. For my report I would like to keep it short and sweet by doing a quick "top 10". These are in no particular order.

10. Doing the time warp at Grand Master's Youth Day.
9. Singing the National Anthem (very off tune) at the River City Rascals Game.
8. Getting CAV trained while still not being an adult.
7. Dancing with the KC girls at T-Ball. I loved to see the St. Louis & KC girls hanging out together and getting my picture with Santa.
6. It was really exciting running score sheets at the Miss MO pageant in a dress that didn't fit. I also brought back the blue hair that I miss so much! Yea for fun hair!
5. Ruth Mary Leavitt Scholarship trivia night. Thanks moms of Bethel 4 and my own mother for trading me to another team.
4. Mid-America HIKE was a blast! The hike was a bit long, but I got to meet new girls & took home a robot!
3. Daniella's, Dad Craig's, and Mom Nancy's receptions. They were a lot of fun and you guys have had an amazing year.
2. Seeing Kyndle be awarded the Grand Master's Youth Award! I am so proud of you.
1. Singing for Carolyn Kirchoff at her installation. It was a beautiful installation and you are going to have a great term.

To the Bethels I was unable to visit, I'm truly sorry. I really wish I could have had more time this year to come and spend time with you.

I would also like to say thank you to everyone for their sympathy this January when I lost my Grandpa. It was truly amazing seeing girls at his visitation and receiving so many cards and prayers. It truly made my loss less difficult for me and you have no idea how important that was for me.

Thank you & I love you! I'm looking forward to the coming year.

Jobie Love & Mine,
Caitlin M Burress, GBJP
